TROPICO CELEBRATES THE GLORIOUS 4TH IN A TRUE PAT- RIOT STYLE

July (4)-5 passed off in Tropico as sane and as safe as could be expected. While the old days of noise, heavy crackers and casualties are practically done away with there still lingers in the heart of the young American that spirit of patriotism that makes it impossible to forego the pleasures of shooting off a few fire crackers on the Fourth of July. While the grown-ups advocate sane and safe Fourth's it is a cinch that when fire crackers are around they try to make as much noise as their sons—after July 5th there is plenty of time to talk sane and safe.

Sunday was observed in its true way but Monday was a holiday, and those who were not away on picnics, etc., put in the day entertaining the kids. In the afternoon the playgrounds drew the crowd, and numerous games were pulled off for ribbon honors, males and females vying with each other in feats of sport. It was advertised that everybody was to take basket lunche at the grounds, but a very few took advantage of this. However, later in the evening everybody was on hand to witness the display of fireworks.

Robert Taylor, in whose heart rings the true spirit of patriotism; one of the boys of '61-65, who is the prime mover in every act that keeps alive the love of country, was the one to whom we owe the display on last Monday evening. Mr. Taylor worked for several days to collect a small amount to be expended for fire works, and it was he who saw the finish of his work at the playgrounds. Bob does his work with his hat off and when he works, especially at anything that brings memories of days gone by, he moves rapidly and the old gray locks float in the breeze like the flag he loves so well. In spite of his years, when its country, the youngsters have to go some to keep up with Bob.

CONGRESSMAN CHAS. H. RANDALL'S "DRY" POSTMASTER WINS

Congressman Charles H. Randall of Highland Park won a notable victory with the Postmaster General when his "dry" candidate for postmaster at Whittier, Joseph S. Todd, was appointed last week, over the opposition of the Democratic county central committee and of many influential politicians throughout the state and nation. In the face of the slated appointment of a "wet," made by the committee, Randall went to Washington in January last, and demanded that Whittier be given a "dry" postmaster. He secured permission to hold an election, the first of the kind on the Pacific coast.

E. H. WESTON APPOINTED TO REPRESENT STATE

Edward H. Weston was last week appointed to represent California at the Congress of Photography, to be held during the Photographers' Association of America's 35th annual convention at Indianapolis, July 19. The congress is the legislative body of the association, and is composed of one representative from each state. The appointment of Mr. Weston is through the regards held for him as a recognized artist. Tropico gains by its being his home.

What is the Excuse?

If we are as highly civilized as we think we are and as humane, scientific and wealthy, as a nation, as we claim to be what excuse have we to offer for permitting more than 1,500,000 people to be constantly ill from preventable disease and the lives of thousands to be annually sacrificed to ignorance and neglect?—Texas State Board of Health.

LOOK before you leap. You've oft heard a person say VEXATION. I don't know he the Browns manage to get things better and cheaper than I do at the time.

VEXATION never gets at one anywhere.

What the Browns do is LOOK BEFORE THEY LEAP. They take no chances with UNKNOWN QUALITY and QUANTITY and HIGH PRICES.

There is POSITIVELY NO NEED to PLAY GRAB BAG with the serious business of buying.

RECIPROCAL RIPPLING RHYMES

Bill bought some rags of Tailor Skaggs and paid him when he got 'em; Skaggs wept with glee; "for now" said he, "I'll pay my my bills, dod rot 'em."

So on the run he took the mon and paid the corner grocer,
Whose trade was bad, and who was sad, because the wolf drew closer.

This made him smile and for awhile the man of teas and sages Thought cheerful thinks, forgot the kinks, and paid his clerks their wages.

And William Burke, the old head clerk, put up some thankful phrases;
His wife was ill---the druggist's bill had worried him like blazes.

The druggist cried, "doggone your hide, I thank you for these roubles;
I'm in the hole and need a roll to ease my weight of troubles."

The druggist paid that winsome maid, his first assistant Annie,
And just for luck she blew a buck for roller skates for granny.

And thus Bill's skads brought help to lads and girls beyond the counting;
Much trouble ceased, and joy increased, and kept on mounting, mounting.

You see, my friend, if you should spend your coin with local dealers,
You're spreading glee and ecstasy to beat the sunshine spieler.

J. STITT WILSON SPEAKS AT TROPICO-GLENDALE UNION HIGH SCHOOL

J. Stitt Wilson will speak at the Tropico-Glendale Union High School Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. Subject, "The World's Present Crisis, or Christianity in Overalls."

One of the greatest pleasures and privileges that can come to any one is to have the opportunity to listen to an elegant speaker. One who speaks a message that comes from the heart and reaches the heart. The really great and good are never fully appreciated while they live. Their measure cannot be taken till they are gone. It has been so in the past; it will be so in the future.

Like Wendell Phillips, G. Stitt Wilson will be better appreciated by succeeding generations, for Wilson is the Wendell Phillips of the present century. The eloquence and power with which Phillips arraigned "chattel slavery" is even surpassed by Wilson's arraignment of "wage slavery." His tongue and soul are adams with the truths that he believes this generation most needs if we are to endure as a peaceful and prosperous nation.

All are welcome to attend this meeting, and it is hoped that a large audience will greet this noted speaker.

Breaking Up "Chatter."

The famous painter Fusell had a great contempt for chatter. One afternoon a party of friends paid a visit to his studio, and after a few moments spent in looking at the pictures they seated themselves and proceeded to indulge in a long and purposeless talk. At last, in one of the slight pauses, Fusell said earnestly, "I had pork for dinner today."

"Why, my dear Mr. Fusell," exclaimed one of the startled group, "what an extremely odd remark!" "Is it?" said the painter indignantly. "Why, isn't it as interesting and important as anything that has been said for the last hour?"

Safety First! Yes, First, Last And All the Time.

By MOSS.

"SAFETY first!" That's a SPLENDID slogan of the day.

Let's apply it to our DAILY NEEDS.

Safety first means don't rush in where WISE FOLKS FEAR TO TREAD. Don't buy PROMISCUOUSLY.

If you were going to buy a house you'd want to know all about the properties in town for sale and all about the man you were dealing through.

If you wanted to buy a ring or a piano or a washtub or a new dining room table or a box of soap or any of a thousand things you would like to be fully posted on where you could buy it the best and cheapest.

It's a NATURAL feeling—SAFETY FIRST!

Be sure you APPLY it.

And what better way than through the ads. in this THOROUGHLY RELIABLE paper? Our business men have been using it for years to keep the public posted against SLIPSHOD METHODS of BUYING. All things considered, it is SAFETY FIRST to trade with the merchant who CONSISTENTLY and HONESTLY ADVERTISES.

WATER RATE QUESTION MAY DEVELOP INTO A VERY PERPLEX- ING PROBLEM

Whom to believe, the trust officers of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company or the agent and representative of the bondholders of the Glendale Consolidated Water Company regarding Tropico water matters, is bothering citizens and rate payers quite a little.

In reply to the resolution of the Board of Trustees calling upon water service companies of Tropico for verified property statements, the officers of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company filed a statement covering a period of nearly three years, showing an income largely in excess of interest on its investment or cost of its service plant and operating expenses, and showing its investment is $27,000. But with a marvelous contempt for the repeatedly certified statements of the Trust Officers, Mr. Arthur Campbell enters the sanctity of the court room and solemnly swears that the Trust Company's investment in the property of the plant is $9,758.40, and that the annual interest due the company is at the rate of 8 per cent, or $7,846.67, instead of 6 per cent, or $1,620. Just $5,720.67 a year too little. Evidently some one has blundered, or worse.

Statements for rate fixing are a constitutional requirement, and a failure to comply with the provisions of the law respecting them subjects the delinquent to the payment of fine and the forfeiture of the franchise.

These water service people have been trifling with the rights and interests of the inhabitants of the City of Tropico for let these many years, and it is the determination, not only of the City Attorney and the Board of Trustees, but citizens of the city that it shall cease.

KNOW THY COUNTRY

II—Railroads

In discussing the commercial achievements of this great age, we shall approach the subject as the historian chronicling events. This series will endeavor to record in writing the supremacy of American men and industries in the world's affairs and perpetuate an appreciation of our marvelous industrial achievements by presenting simple facts, figures and comparisons that are overpowering in their convictions.

America holds her proud place among the nations of the earth today on account of her supremacy in transportation facilities. The mighty minds of the age are engaged in the problems of transportation, and the greatest men in the history of the world's commerce are at the head of the transportation systems of the United States.

In the discussion of transportation, let us consider separately our Railways, Telegraph and Telephone, Express, Public Highways, Steamships, Street Railways, Interurban and other forms of transportation, and this article will deal with railways.

The United States has the largest mileage, the best service, the cheapest rates, pays labor the highest wages, and we have the most efficiently managed of the railways of the world. They stand as a monument to the native genius of our marvelous builders, and most of the railroads in foreign countries have been built under American orders.

The railroads represent a larger investment of capital than any other branch of human activity. The mileage in the United States exceeds the accepted distance from the earth to the moon. We had in 1911, the last year in which figures for all countries are available, on the earth's surface, 639,981 miles of railway divided as follows: United States 241,199, Europe 207,432 and other countries 191,350. The United States has 38 per cent of the world's mileage, seven per cent of the estimated population and about five per cent of the area. The total capital invested in the railways of the world is $50,000,000,000, divided as follows: United States $13,000,000,000 Europe $25,650,000,000 and other countries $11,350,000,000. Reduced to a mileage basis the capitalization is as follows: The world $78,000, United States $54,000, Europe $124,000, and other countries $59,000.

A comparison of rates is equally as interesting and the United States takes the lead in economy and service. The average rate per ton per hundred mile haul is as follows: United States 76c, Great Britain $2.53, France $1.14, Germany $1.44, Russia 92c, Austria-Hungary $1.30, Italy $2.30 and Switzerland $2.82.

The average yearly pay of all railroad employees in the principal countries is as follows: United States $757, Germany $392, Italy $345, Austria $322, Great Britain $279, France $260 and Russia $204.

About 30 per cent, or 188,000 miles, of the railways of the world are government owned. About half the railway mileage of Europe is government owned.

A comparison of the economy, in time and money and the convenience in travel, will be made in a later article.

Plaintiff and Defendant

By OSCAR COX

Having received a note from my cousin, Belle Archer, that she wished to see me very particularly, I went to her house at once. I found her on the rear porch in a hammock reading a novel. She did not rise to receive me, nor did she lay down her novel, but pointed to a letter lying on a wicker table. I took it up and perused it. It read as follows:

Miss Arabella Archer:

Dear Madam—We beg to inform you that Mr. Edward Herbert Angell has retained our services, directing us to enter suit against you for the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for breach of promise. We should be pleased before doing so to hear from you with reference to settling the matter out of court, thus avoiding both publicity and expense. We are, very respectfully, your obedient servants,
GYMCRACK, SPINNER & MUCHMORE.

I read this letter not only with surprise, but with a smile. I believe there have been cases of a man suing a woman for breach of promise, but they have been rare. Having finished reading the epistle, I looked up at Belle, but she seemed more interested in her book than what the letter involved for her. Nor was I able to engage her attention till she had finished the chapter she was reading. Then I said:

"I dare say you have deserved this."

"I dare say I have."

"You would not hesitate to jilt an angel."

"That's what I am accused of having done."

"Perhaps if you send the plaintiff a letter expressing contrition he will withdraw the suit."

"Perhaps he would, but I'm not contrite."

I thought for a few minutes, then, changing my tone, said:

"I suppose it must be treated seriously. Do you wish me to act for you in the matter?"

"I do."

"What evidence has Mr. Angell that you have consented to marry him?"

"I don't know that he has any."

"You mean that you have been so reckless in your numerous flirtations that you have not kept track of the men you have accepted and those you have refused?"

"That's about it."

"What course shall I pursue in this case?"

"Oh, settle it as best you can. It won't beggar me to pay at all."

Considering that Miss Archer was worth several hundred thousand dollars this was true. Angell was worth a million.

"I don't suppose," I said, "the plaintiff wants money."

"No; he wants to squeeze me."

"What?"

"He wants to make me throw over my other suitors for him."

"Oh!"

"He thinks he can bluff me."

"And you don't propose to be bluffd."

"No, I don't. You just write his lawyers for me that I'll pay the amount sued for entire and don't consider it any compliment that the damages named are so small."

I wrote Messrs. Gymcrack, Spinner & Muchmore that my client would pay the amount claimed. In due time a reply came from them inclosing a typewritten apology that Miss Archer was to sign acknowledging that she had acted very dishonorably toward the plaintiff, humbly begged his forgiveness and "she will keep her contract with him." Belle signed it, but put the word "not" between the words "will" and "keep."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition
of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD*EAT MORE LENTILS.

LENTILS baked with a few chopped nuts and tomatoes make a dish with more value than meat.
After a pint of lentils have been soaked overnight in water, drain and cover with fresh water and boil until the skins crack.
Place them in a shallow baking pan,
mixing them with half a pound of Brazil nuts which have been peeled and chopped fine, sprinkle over two tea-spoonfuls of salt, cover with strained tomatoes and bake for two hours.

Lentil cutlets make an excellent dinner dish. Prepare a quart of lentils by washing and placing in a granite saucepan with a quart of cold water, a teaspoonful of lemon juice, two small onions, four whole cloves, three red peppers, a teaspoonful of salt and a bunch of herbs, including plenty of parsley. Cover and cook over a moderate fire until the water has been absorbed and the lentils are soft, but not pulpy. Take out the herbs, onions and cloves and mix with the lentils half a pound of fresh mushrooms previously cooked in their own liquor and slightly flavored with mace. Set aside the liquor of the mushrooms for gravy.
Add to lentil and mushroom mixture two tablespoonfuls of red currant jelly, a dessertspoonful of meat or vegetable extract, a little red pepper and some celery salt. Add unbeaten eggs, one or two at a time, until the mixture is well bound together. Then brush with egg, coat with brown breadcrumbs after shaping into a cut-let and fry in deep fat. With the cut-let serve a well seasoned brown gravy, using the mushroom liquid as foundation, and adding at the last moment
another small spoonful of currant jelly.

Lentil Omelet a Novelty.

Lentil omelet is a splendid luncheon or supper dish. Wash three tablespoonfuls of lentils; then cook them in salted water. Melt a tablespoonful of butter in a saucepan, fry in it a peeled chopped shallot, add the drained lentils and fry a few minutes. Moisten with three tablespoonfuls of brown sauce, season with salt and pepper and keep hot. Break six eggs and beat them up well with two tablespoonfuls of cream, season and pour into an omelet pan containing some melted butter. When the omelet begins to set, spread the lentils over it and fold over. A little tomato sauce may be poured around the base of the dish if desired.

Cheese baked with lentils makes a substantial and most prepared dish. Prepare the lentils as for the cut-let, before the mushrooms are added, and sprinkle several layers of grated cheese into the baking dish between the layers of lentils, and the top put thick slices of ripe tomatoes or cover well with canned ones. Over them sprinkle finely chopped parsley and dot the whole with small pieces of butter.
Bake quickly and serve hot without gravy.

A MAN'S WORK.

He who gives his whole soul to the spiritual uplift of the community and succeeds in cultivating faith, hope and charity among his fellows need not worry about any other tasks. He is doing a good man's full work.

She Objected.

"I certainly shall not give you a recommendation. You have disgraced us."
"In what way, madam? Hasn't my work always been satisfactory?"
"Your work has been all right. It's the reasons for your leaving me that I object."

"I don't understand you."

"Then I'll explain. I've had servants leave me to get married and because they were needed at home and because they found pleasant employment at summer resorts, but you are actually quitting to get more money than I can afford to pay. What will my friends think when they know that?"—Detroit Free Press.

This Is Paradoxical.

The apparent paradox that in severely cold weather fruit stored in ice chilled refrigerator cars will not freeze while fruit in cars in which there is no ice freezes is explained by Dr. J. D.
Bonnar in the Scientific American as being due to the release of latent heat when the vapor in the air freezes on coming into contact with the ice.

The Day of Moss Covered Ads. Is Done.

By MOSS.

MR. MERCHANT, you are NOT an advertising expert. YOUR business is to sell coal, or dry goods, or hardware, or real estate, or drugs, or what not. You know how to do THAT right down to the ground.

There's not the SHADOW OF A DOUBT that the ads. in some newspapers lose 10 to 50 per cent of their REAL PULLING VALUE through the deplorable lack of PROPER DISPLAY either in type or illustration or persuasive wording. There's not the shadow OF A DOUBT either that this is largely due to the fact that the advertiser is TOO BUSY to map out his ads. PROPERLY or else is INEXPERIENCED.

This paper is ready at ALL TIMES to assist our advertisers to improve the appearance of their ads. We have been of great help in that respect to many. But this is addressed principally to the merchant who knows he OUGHT TO ADVERTISE, but feels he can't do it RIGHT. To such we will gladly furnish suggestions as to style and text, or, better still, we will provide snapshots, exclusive illustrated advertising cuts, cleverly worded, at small cost. Saves you time, worry and bother.

ACT ON THIS RIGHT OFF!

Enough Said.

THE PENALTY OF CARELESSNESS

By S. W. Inglish,
Fire Prevention Expert.

Every time you hear the cry of "Fire!" you can be almost absolutely safe in thinking that someone has been careless. Fires don't happen. They are the inevitable result of combinations of preventable things. When analyzed to the last equation it will be found that carelessness is the root whence spring nearly all fires.

What a penalty industry pays to carelessness! Fire is the great destroyer. The wealth of a generation can be wiped out in but a brief hour.

Why not fight fires before they start? Why not so conduct your habits and so keep your premises that when the fire demon wants to offer your savings as a sacrifice he will pass you by, just as those of Egypt of old were passed over when the sign they had been told to place over their doors, were seen?

Too often when those who are responsible from fire cry out they are the victims of bad luck, they are but paying the natural penalty for their own carelessness.

If you want to keep down your fire insurance rates, wage eternal warfare against those things that ever breed fires.

THE PRESSURE.

How little music could one ever get out of a violin without the pressure of the fingers on the strings! Is it not even thus that God brings the music out of souls? All the sweetest chords are evoked, not from the open strings, but from those pressed hard by the Master's hand.--James Buckham.
